RE: GUNS AND REVOLVERS

I examined the records of the sales of guns and revolvers of Strong Hardware Company of 289 Burnet Street, New Brunswick, N.J., for the period from December 2, 1915 until January 1, 1923. The only records which I found which might have any bearing on this case are as follows:

Oct. 19, 1916. Sold to Joe Toth, 314 Seaman Street, 1 double bbl. gun L.C. Smith make, #347928, twelve gauge, Hammer. S. Kramer, salesman.

May 4, 1918. Sold to B.F. Mills, 51 or 57 Drift Street, 1 Revolver, Iver Johnson make #68502, 38 caliber, blue steel. Powless, salesman.

November 12, 1920. Sold to Nick Bahmer, 232 Neilson Street, 1 single barrel Knickerbocker, #177841, twelve gauge, double hammer. Price $30.00. John J. Shute, salesman.

July 22, 1922. Sold to John Toth, Deans, N.J. 1 Revolver, Iver Johnson, 38 caliber, #40527, 5 cylinder, Price $16.00. Morton, salesman.

Sept. 23 (29), 1922. Sold to Nicholas Bahmer, 232 Neilson Street, 1 Colt revolver. Colt Mfg. Company, #412584, 32 caliber, repeater, Price $19.50. Sold by No. 2

M. Frisch & Sons, General Hardware, 48-50 Hiram Street, New Brunswick, N.J., have the following record, namely:

Nov. 12, 1924, Sold to A.F. Push, 257 Sanford Street, 1 Colt Automatic, #448690, 32 caliber.

March 9, 1925. Sold to Theodore L. Ruckman, North Brunswick Township, R.F.D. #5, 1 Colt Automatic, #48438, 32 caliber.

There are also loan offices in town where revolvers can be purchased and also they are sent in to town from mail order houses through the parcel post.

Respectfully submitted,
David Thompson
